NEWSLETTER 12th June 2015

Listening Excellence Attitude Respect Negotiate Enjoy Responsible Support

Our Value for this month is Justice (British Value: Rule of Law)

The importance of rules, laws, fairness and justice, are consistently reinforced at Prince of Wales. The children have considered the 'laws' that govern their classrooms, and the school's behaviour rules. From Nursery to Year 6, the pupils are taught about the rules of our school. These are our 'Golden Rules'. Can your child recite them to you? The pupils are now aware of the value and reasons behind rules. The children know that rules and laws govern and also protect us.

Mrs Stylli, PSHE and Values Co-ordinator

Fairness = Rewards

Our pupils can explain that justice means fairness. It is fair that good behaviour earns rewards. Year 6 pupils who consistently follow school rules, do their homework, are punctual, do their best and wear correct school uniform were given a surprise treat today. Will this number increase next week and earn one of Frank's Ices?

Bikeability – cycle training for the 21st century

Cycle training took place this week for year 5 and 6, covering Bikeability levels 1 & 2, which includes on road training in small groups.
