Head Boy Speech

Hello, my name is Elijah Onigbokun and I am the new head boy for Prince of Wales Primary School 2016/17. I am sensible, punctual, responsible and I take pride in my work. I am here to help everyone, so if you have issues please come to me for help. I started at Prince of Wales about 8 years ago. Throughout my years in Prince of Wales I have exceeded in all my work and reached all my goals in my lessons.

At Prince of Wales there are many opportunities to succeed. There is support from all staff and the pupils in our school. Parents play a key role in a child's learning and behaviour. Homework, getting work done on time and self-study brings a positive outcome. These are good for children because not only teachers can do it, but it has to be a combined effort of the student and the parent.

When I entered the interviewing room I felt proud and confident. Mr Bless and Mr Taylor asked me to say my presentation. After that I was asked questions such as "Who inspired you to be head boy?", "Why do you want to do the role?" and "What will you do as head boy?". I put a lot of effort for the interview and I was glad to be chosen.

Thank you Mr Bless, Mr Taylor and for everyone who nominated me for Head Boy. I will do my best for Prince of Wales Primary School.
