

Parent Forum

The first Parent Forum this week was very productive and we thank those parents who attended for joining members of our leadership team and Governors for their constructive questions and comments.

The topics that were covered included Reading Eggs, school uniform and haircuts, fund raising by parents, homework, catering for the more able pupils, parents who cycle onto school grounds and the loss of the lollipop lady. The full transcript of the meeting can be found on our website at <http://www.princeofwales.enfield.sch.uk/parents/>

The next meeting will be on Tuesday 31st January at 9am and at 6pm, to allow more parents to attend and participate.

The application for the Parent Governor vacancy is now closed, however if there IS further interest, please notify the school by close of Monday 28th November.

Reading Eggs & Mathletics

Earlier this month we had considered discontinuing Reading Eggs and Mathletics due to lack of use by the children at home. Following requests from individual parents as well as at the Parent Forum, it has been decided to continue with the programmes for now, but the usage will be monitored throughout the year to ensure its value for money.
