

Last week 4H took part in four Eat Well – Move More Workshops. We identified lots of unusual vegetables, and discussed how a small change in our diet or lifestyle could make a big change to our health in the future. We all thought that changing some of our fizzy drinks for water or milk would be a good idea.

