

Tuesday - Vocabulary from the main text that you read yesterday.

tremble shake twitch quiver

Which verb fits best into the sentences?

Silently, the young boy began to _____ as the man shouted at him.

When I went to the football match, I got to _____ hands with my favorite player!

I had to speak in front of the whole school and I could hear my voice begin to _____.

Try to write your own sentences with at least two of these verbs.

Mime each verb to someone in your house and see if they can guess the verb!

1)

2)

a) pursued

b) scattered

c) tusks

d) sparks

3)

4)

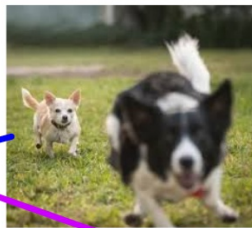

Match the words to the pictures.
Then check on the following slide.

1)

2)

a) pursued

b) scattered

c) tusks

d) sparks

3)

4)

These are the answers.

Now choose at least two and include them in a sentence .

Vocabulary from the text in context

When the thirsty boars gathered to drink, he rushed upon them with ropes. He pursued them like a lion, and as they scattered, their tusks struck sparks from the rocks.

1) Write the verbs from these sentences in your books.

Can you find synonyms to replace these verbs?

2) Identify the simile in the sentence.

3) What can you infer about the boars from the blue part of the sentence?

