

Friday 1st May

I can listen to poetry and further my understanding through discussion

1. Read the poem to yourself and then an adult.
Does this poem rhyme?

ME AND MY BALL

Ball jump off of my window-sill
Ball jump off of the floor
Ball jump over granny chair
Ball jump off of the door
Ball jump into granny lap
Ball make granny stop snore

ME AND MY BALL

Ball jump off of my window-sill
Ball jump off of the floor
Ball jump over granny chair
Ball jump off of the door
Ball jump into granny lap
Ball make granny stop snore

Write the answers in your book:

1. Write down any words that rhyme in your book.
2. What sound do these rhyming words have?
3. Is the sound always spelt in the same way?
4. How does each line in the poem start?

Pick a toy you have or might want to have.

1. Draw the toy in your book.

2. Describe what you could use the toy for.

For example:

