Subject	Lesson focus/objective (I can....)	Activity and/or instructions
DGR	Word meaning	This week we are going to read extracts from the book 'The other side of truth.' - First, start off by answering the questions from the first slide. You will need to use your predicting skills. - Then, you will have a short matching activity to complete. - Finally, read through the text and familiarise yourself with any other new words.
Mathematics	I can identify, name and write equivalent fractions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Today's lesson is quite short. It will get you started thinking about equivalent fractions, something we learnt about in the Spring term.- You have a total of 8 questions to go through and for some of them you will need to use a ruler.- Have fun!
Writing/RE	I can understand facts about Alevism.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- This week in RE we will be looking at Alevism.- Some of you would be very familiar with this topic and you might even remember the assembly we had a few months ago where a group of Alevi (men and women) performed a dance for us in the Square hall.- Today's activity is to create a mind map using facts you have learnt about Alevism.
