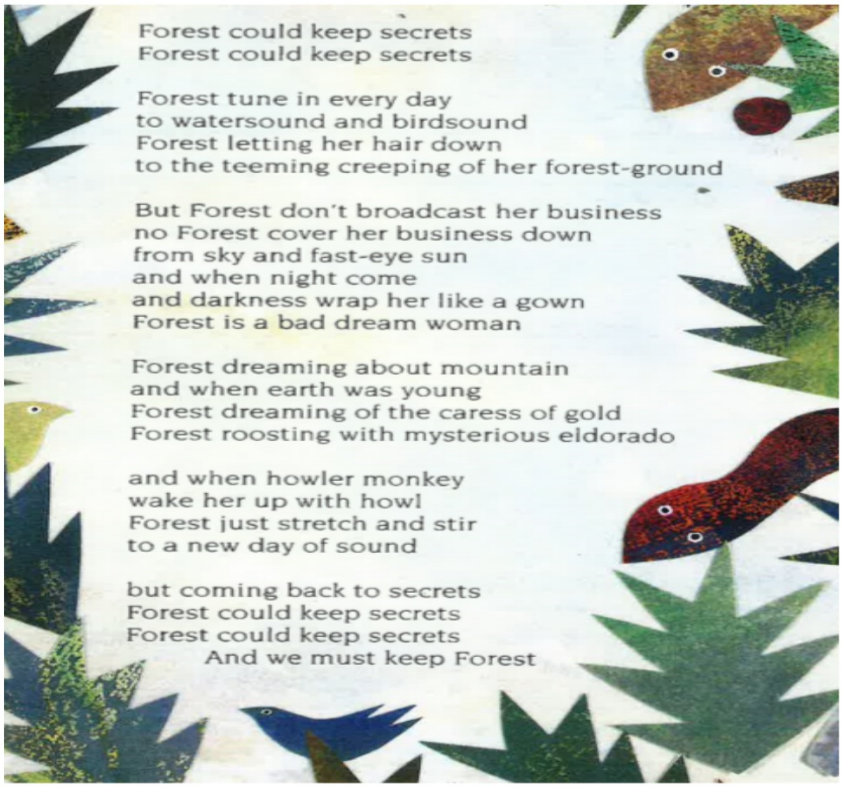
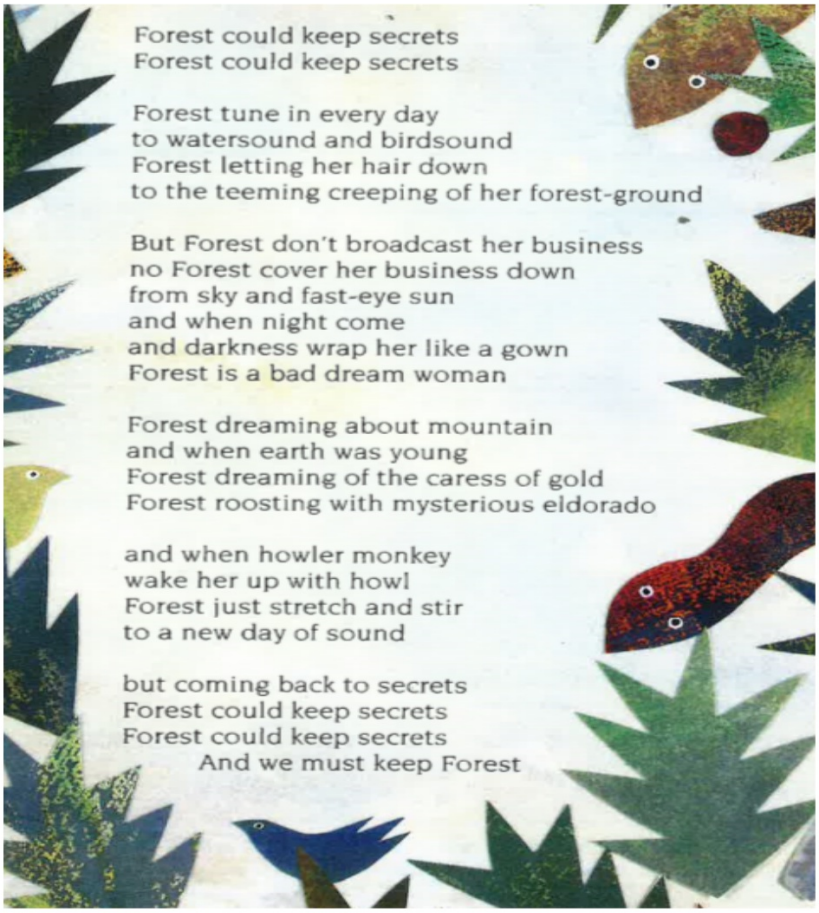
Monday 20th April
I can discuss and record ideas



1.Read the poem to an adult.

What did you like about the poem?
Write it in your book



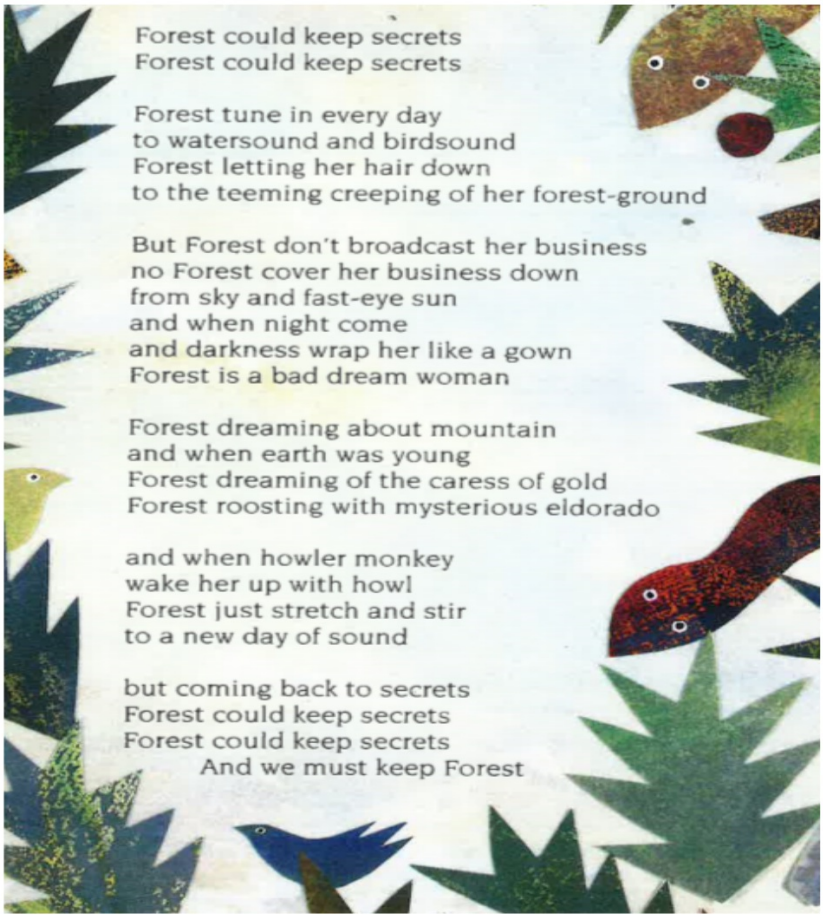
Do any words in the poem rhyme?

Look at the words at the end of each line.

Do any of the words have the same sound?

For example:
sea tea
sound pound

Does the poem rhyme? Do poems have to rhyme?



Read the poem again.

Look at the pictures and colours that have been used.

What could the title of the poem be? Why?

Write your prediction in your book.

What could the poem be about? Write your answer in your book.

1.You are going to watch this clip from the jungle.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rc4dHR3Ang0

2.In your book write down any sounds you can hear.
For example:
Monkeys howling
Parrots whistling
Water rushing

3.Write down anything you might see.
For example:
Bright green leaves
Small furry hummingbird

1. Use the sounds you have collected to write sentences

For example:
I heard the cold water rushing to reach the sea.
I heard the parrots whistling secrets to each other.

2. Use the images you have collected to write sentences.

For example:
I saw the green scaly lizard racing the sun up the tree.
I saw the gentle parrots whispering to each other.

You are going to use your ideas to help you write a poem on Thursday.
