

English – Monday's answers

1. Sound and ground. Down and gown.
2. The poem does not rhyme. Not all poems have to rhyme. If a poem does not rhyme it can be called free verse poetry. Watch the video for more information:
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z4mmn39/articles/z8sf8mn>
3. The title to the poem was 'For Forest'.
4. The poem is about how important the forest is. The forest is important to the animals and plants that live there but also to people who need the forest.