

What does precious mean?

The Torah is precious to the Jews.

Some things that are precious to us are worth a lot of money and some are not worth lots of money.

For example:

My photo album is precious to me not because it is worth lots of money but because of the memories attached to it.

Draw three things that are precious to you.

Why are they precious?