

Tuesday English – similes and metaphors in the poem

Similes

Darkness wrap her like a gown.

Metaphors

Forest could keep secrets.

Forest tune in every day.

Forest letting her hair down.

Forest don't broadcast her business.

Forest is a bad dream woman.

Forest dreaming about mountain.

Forest roosting with mysterious Eldorado.

Howler monkey wake her up.

Forest just stretch and stir.

There are a lot more metaphors than similes in the poem.
