

Wednesday English answers

Similes:

- The one who displays toes like archway windows
- Dilberta, rippling as she ambles under the wrinkled tarpaulin of her skin
- Bringing the pads of her feet down like giant paperweights

Metaphors:

- The walking whale of the earth kingdom – Dilberta
- Casually throwing the arm of her nose, saying, 'Go on, have a stroke'.
- The wind stirring behind her ears, she could really fly.