Who is Ali?

- Alevi believe Ali is the most important figure in Alevism.
- Ali was prophet Muhammet's (Muhammad) cousin. He was also married to Muhammet's daughter.

What sort of person do you think he was?

What makes you think this?

Ali believed that knowledge is very important.

He believed that people should have good knowledge.

What do you think is 'good' knowledge?

This is a picture of Hacı Bektas Veli and he also believed in the importance of knowledge.

'Without science(knowledge), the end of the path would be dark (Hacı Bektas Veli)

It means that Alevi faith and beliefs should be based on reason, experience and evidence.

Task Diamond 9 - in your books draw a diamond shape with 9 boxes and copy the words from the cards in the order of importance in your opinion. The most important word would go at the top of your diamond. What is most important in life?
