I can write a letter to a fictional character.

Read the text again:

They invited the boy to visit their land, far away across the sea.

“Come away with us and taste our language see the lights of our civilised world.”

What did you decide yesterday about what Jemmy should do?

Letter Writing

When writing a letter there are a few things we must include.

Dear _____

Telling us who the letter is addressed to.

Dear Mum,⁴

I'm writing to tell you that I arrived safely¹⁰ and to say thank you for the new hair slides⁶ you packed in my case. How lovely to have a nice surprise after such a long day!^{6 3}

When we got to Rustington,⁷ we⁵ all had to go into the village hall where they gave us milk and buns. I shared mine with my best friend Rita Evans⁵ because she⁵ dropped hers on the floor. After that,⁷ we² lined up along the wall and people from the village came to choose evacuees¹² to take home. Some children went together especially¹³ the brothers and sisters but unfortunately^{9and10} Rita and I got split up. I was² disappointed⁹ but it didn't matter as a really smiley lady called Mrs Clark⁵ asked, "Would you like to come and stay with me dearie?" So now, that's where I am. She⁵ says I've to call her⁵ Auntie Ivy and her⁵ husband is Uncle Bob. What do you think of that? ³

A sentence explaining why you are writing to them.

Sign off your letter. How formal depends on how well you know the person.

From,
Yours sincerely,
Kind Regards,

Have you had a letter from Dad yet? I asked Uncle Bob⁵ if he⁵ was going to join up but he's in a reserved occupation¹⁰ at the water board¹¹ so he has to stay in Sussex. ³

I miss you, Nanny and Didi very much. Can you⁵ come and visit me here soon? Please write and tell me what's happening at home. ³

Lots of love,⁴

Jane X

A sentence concluding your letter. Sometimes you can resay things you have said in your letter to sum up the key points.

Task: Write a letter of advice to Jemmy telling him what you think he should do.

Do you think he should go with the visitors?

Dear Jemmy Button,

I am writing to you

I strongly feel that you should.... Because...

If you go with the visitors.....

This is why I feel you should...

From,
