

Home activities- please take some photographs to share with your teacher.

Have a picnic in your garden or in your living room.

Try out one of the war time recipes.

Make some colourful bunting - see instructions and templates supplied

Make a poster to display in your window.

Play some music from this time.

Talk to your older relatives – do they have any photographs they can share with everyone of street parties they have been to, for example The Queen's Silver Jubilee in 1977, or any of the Royal Weddings.

Make your own medal.

Make and decorate a paper aeroplane.

Make 'red white and blue' fruit kebabs using different coloured fruits.

