

Day 3 – Skills.

Today we are going to practise our skills using a funny poem from this book published about lockdown.

Day 3 – Skills.

Say Something Nice

Kindnesses

Every now and then
say something nice.

Say it to a friend.

Say it to a teacher.

Say it to your sister
or brother,
your father or mother.

Say something nice like:

You remind me of flowers.

Day 3 – Skills.

or

Your hair is like fresh bread.

or

I like sausages.

or

you're better than asparagus.

or

I like you more than Simon.

Just say something nice to make them feel good.

The world is sometimes grey
and things go wrong

and a smile,
can turn it back around.

Say something nice like:

*That wasn't a very good poem
but I liked it when it stopped.*

Day 3

1. Why should we say kind things to each other? To make others feel better which then makes us feel good about ourselves.

2. Is it kind to say 'your hair is like fresh bread'?
Yes because the author likes fresh bread.

3. Which of the 'likes' is the rudest?
'I like you more than Simon' because it could potentially make Simon feel bad.

4. Is this poem funny? I like it because the writer laughs at himself.

5. If so what makes it funny?
The writer says it wasn't very good but I liked it when it stops.

6. Can you think of something to say to make someone feel better about themselves? Eg. You're better than melted cheese dripping off hot beans.
