

Art - Friday

Today's task is to create your own piece of artwork that symbolises peace. Think about the ideas that you collected yesterday to help you. You can use whichever materials you have available.

Take your time to complete your artwork. If you are interested in entering your work into the competition, please let your class teacher know.

