

I can create an image which captures what summer means to me.

Think about one of your best holidays.
Consider what three or four colours most effectively capture the mood and energy of this memory. Using these chosen colours draw a memory or image that best captures what summer means to you.

Share your picture with your teacher.

Keep it in a safe place as you will need to refer to it again next week .

