

I can use role on the wall to make inferences and deductions about my character.

Lets focus on the woman in the illustration. Use deduction and inference skills:

Outside the character write what we know so far.

Inside write what we can infer, what might be true.

You will need to draw your own simple out line of the woman .

See the next page to help you. Remember to look carefully at the rest of the picture so you can make your inferences and deductions about her .

Draw your own simple outline of the woman .

Outside write what we know so far.

Inside write what we can infer, what might be true.
