

I can generate words and phrases from the whole story.

Read on till the end of the book-you will find this on the attachment on the website, it's in 3 different parts.

As you read write any words and phrases that go with these pictures or that are important to you from the text.
Make sure you have include at least 4 nouns.

Remember you are not retelling the story .

Today's lesson is in preparation for poetry writing.

- Chose your best 10 phrases or words from your notes ( make sure you have a mixture of each)
- Copy these on to cut up stripes of paper .

Now you should have ten strips of paper, some with phrases on them and some with just words.

Keep these in a safe place as tomorrow you will be turning your notes in a variation of sentence structures for your poem.
