Dear Samuel,

How are you? I haven't heard from you for a long time and decided to write you a letter to see if you're okay.

It was my birthday today and I had a really cool time. I wore the superman suit you bought me and I played all day in the garden.

Thanks for buying me a present, I really appreciate it. Maybe when it's your birthday we can go to the forest and see all the animals that live there.

Anyway, hopefully we'll see each other soon.

I bet you will never guess what I did today! It was my birthday and my Mum let me play in the garden all day with Ginger.

Later on, we had cake and ice-cream. I had too much ice-cream and it made me feel really queasy. I was too greedy!

I want to thank you for my birthday present that you bought me. I really like my superman costume and my Mum said that I could wear it for pyjamas if I wanted to. That is pretty cool.

See you soon,

Harry

Dear Mr Samuel Hall,

Thank-you for sending me a present on the date of my birthday. I opened the present at 9am and I would like to offer you my sincerest wishes on purchasing such an excellent present. I wore the item of clothing today and it was my exact size.

I am going to tell you about the schedule for my birthday so you know what I did and when. At 8am I woke up, at 9 am I opened the six presents and from 10 – 2pm I went outside to enjoy the garden. After 2pm I had a jam sandwich then fell asleep because of the hot weather.

I wish you could have been here to play with me but perhaps we may be able to do this on a future occasion.

Yours sincerely,

Harry
