Dear Alfie,

How are you? Are you still learning how to surf? I thought you should know that something really strange happened to me today.

I woke up in the middle of the night and I heard a strange noise at my window. I had to get up and see what it was because I was scared. I opened the window and Ginger jumped on my shoulder! He was really wet and cold but I thought I saw him swallowing a tail mouse's tail. Urgh!

Does your dog ever do anything disgusting? I bet he does. I read that dogs roll around in mud and then wipe it all over you when you sleep. Is that true? Hopefully we can see each other soon so I can play at the beach again.

Best wishes,

David

Dear Olivia,

I am writing to thank you for the lovely presents you left at my house on Christmas Eve. I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw them all and so beautifully wrapped. Your elves must have been very busy this year.

I especially loved the bike and have been learning how to ride it, as I haven't had one without stabilisers before. The pink helmet is a perfect fit and I wear it to protect my head when I'm on my bike in case I fall off. My brother James loved his train set and has been playing with it every day since you delivered it. He loves the noises it makes and connecting all of the carriages together.

I hope you and Mrs Claus have a lovely holiday and the elves and reindeers have a well-deserved rest.

Love from

Daisy xx

Dear Havin,

I heard that you had an operation and were feeling upset. So, I thought I would write to let you know about something funny that happened to me the other day.

My Mum had bought me a catapult and I used it straight away. I went to my room and opened the window to see who I could aim at. I saw Harry standing by the gate and I decided to get him! I got the water balloon and used the catapult to get him wet. The balloon hit his hat off and got his hair all wet, he wasn't happy. He was crying.

Hopefully, we can have a water fight when you are feeling better, it was so much fun.

Take care,

Chiristabel
