

I can research and plan my balanced argument.

Should mobile phones be allowed in school?

Is graffiti art or vandalism?

Should football players earn so much money?

Should children have to wear school uniform?

Yesterday you should have chosen what you will be writing your balanced argument about .

Today research and jot down some facts and figures about your argument , also some reasons for and against .

Keep these notes to refer to all week .