

From Mrs Gilfillian, Mrs Kancheva, &amp; Mr Halley	Good morning year 5. We have come to the end of this academic year. Hooray, we did it! Well done to all of you who have worked hard every day. You have risen up to the challenge this pandemic threw on us all and you have become independent learners and researchers. We know, that the learning research skills you acquired during this home learning period, will serve you over a lifetime. You have learned a lot about problem solving, critical thinking and very importantly, time management. We are all very proud of you and wish you a fantastic last week in year 5!

Value of the week –
Interdependence.

Our value of the week is Interdependence. That surely is a big word. I wonder what it means? This is what the dictionary's definition is: the dependence of two or more people or things on each other. With this in mind, have a think about how you can rise up the challenge to earn this week's certificate. Would it be by relying on someone for everything and asking them to help you Or helping those who might, at times, rely on you?
