

Sign up for your Reception Ready

Starting school is an exciting milestone in every child's life and we know that Covid-19 has made things a bit more challenging than usual this year. At Booktrust, the UK's largest reading charity, we've partnered with your child's new school to offer you our exciting new Reception Ready Pack that will provide you with some extra support for this change.

We believe books and stories can be particularly helpful as your child starts their new adventure. Reading can help your child build emotional skills, make friends and spark their imagination and creativity.

We wish you and your child a wonderful start to school.

What's in the pack?

A fantastic book to read together, Hello Friend, by Rebecca Cobb.

A Reception Ready planner with fun stickers to help you and your child get used to the new schedules and routines that come with starting school.

How do I sign up?

To sign up, visit <https://secure.booktrust.org.uk/school-transitions-pack-register/> where you can register in two minutes to receive a free pack for your child. Please note sign up will close on Friday 10th July.

As a participating school, all our new reception-aged children are eligible for a pack. Please select the school's name when you sign-up.

What next?

Once registered, the pack will be sent to your home starting the week of Monday 3rd August.

While you wait, why not check out BookTrust HomeTime with free online books and videos as well as activities, quizzes and games. Simply visit our website at booktrust.org.uk/hometime.
