

Thursday 16th January

I can write a persuasive letter.

Today you're going to use your plan to write a letter to Mr Boggington about if you're for or against his company building a pickled onion factory on the school playground.

Look at these sentence openers. Are there any you would like to use in your letter? Add a few to your plan.

Most people would agree that...

Only a fool would think that...

A sensible idea would be to...

Doesn't everyone know that...?

The REAL truth is that...

The fact is that...

EVERYBODY knows that...

Surely you would agree that...

Here are two reasons why...

This clearly shows that...

We can see from the evidence that...

Now look at these conjunctions. Are there any you would like to add to your letter? Add a few to your plan.

Now use your plan to write your letter.

As you write, use these reminders to help you.
