See Relationship and Health Policy Statement - Appendix I

Prince of Wales Primary School - PSHE Policy

1. Aims and Objectives

1.1 Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) and Citizenship enable children to become healthy, independent and responsible members of society. We encourage our pupils to play a positive role in contributing to the life of the school and the wider community, and to develop their sense of self-worth. We teach them how society is organised and governed. We ensure that they experience the process of democracy in school through the 'School Parliament'. We teach them about rights and responsibilities. They learn to appreciate what it means to be a positive member of a diverse multicultural society.

1.2 The aims of PSHE and Citizenship are to enable the children to:

- know and understand what constitutes a healthy lifestyle
- have respect for others
- develop self-confidence and self-esteem, and make informed choices regarding personal and social issues
- develop good relationships with other members of the school and the wider community.
- understand what makes for good relationships with others
- provide the knowledge and strategies to promote mental health and wellbeing
- be independent and responsible members of the school community
- be positive and active members of a democratic society
- be aware of safety issues.
- provide basic first aid training.

- be aware of online relationships and internet safety
- be up to date with accurate and relevant knowledge
- provided with opportunities to turn that knowledge into personal understanding
- provide opportunities to explore, clarify and if necessary challenge their own and others' values, attitudes, beliefs, rights and responsibilities.
- provide the skills and strategies they need in order to live healthy, safe, fulfilling, responsible and balanced lives.

2. Teaching and Learning Style

2.1 We use a range of teaching and learning styles. PSHE will be covered by planned discrete curriculum time, for example, Circle Times and P4C. Circle Times and P4C are taught according to the Prince of Wales PSHE Scheme of Work (See Appendix 2). We place an emphasis on active learning by also including the children in discussions, investigations, and problem-solving activities and role-play scenarios. We encourage the children to take part in a range of creative and practical activities that promote active citizenship, for example in charity fundraising, or the planning of school events such as an assembly. We organise classes in such a way that pupils are able to participate in discussion to resolve conflicts or set agreed classroom rules of behaviour. We offer children the opportunity to hear visiting speakers, such as health workers, police, safety personnel, religious representatives, whom we invite into school to talk about their role in creating a positive and supportive local community.

2.2 Children's learning in PSHE and Citizenship is fundamentally improved by a positive ethos in the school. All activities that contribute to that ethos, such as lunchtime supervision in the dining halls and playground, Achievement Assemblies and extra curriculum activities are positively encouraged. We also promote a Values based education through Values Assemblies (See Appendix 3 for an example).

2.3 We recognise the Healthy Schools Award as an effective vehicle to promote PSHE and Citizenship which offers an integrated whole-school process, set alongside nationally agreed criteria, looking at health issues in their wider sense.

3. PSHE and Citizenship curriculum planning

3.1 We use the Enfield's Scheme of Work for PSHE, which has been cross referenced to the British Values and have adapted the format to personalise the learning for needs of our pupils. The planning is supported by appropriate programmes, such as 'The Christopher Winter Project' (CWP) for teaching Sex and Relationship Education and Drug and Alcohol Education in Primary Schools for years 1 to 6.

3.2 We introduce PSHE and Citizenship through three annual Prince of Wales charity days, and other subjects, for example when teaching about local environment issues in Geography. There is also an overlap between the programmes of study of Religious Education and PSHE and Citizenship.

3.3 We also develop PSHE and Citizenship awareness through activities and whole-school events, e.g. the members of the School Parliament (MSPs) from each class meet regularly to discuss school, local and national matters. We offer residential visits to Year 6 children where there is a particular focus on developing pupils' self-esteem and giving them opportunities to develop leadership and co-operative skills through team building activities. We also offer and encourage participation in sports, creative and musical activities, alongside Enrichment Clubs.

4. Foundation Stage

4.1 We teach PSHE and Citizenship to children of Foundation age as an integral part of the topic work covered during the year. For the Foundation children in our school we relate the PSHE and Citizenship aspects of the children's work to the objectives set out in the document "Development Matters in the Early Years Foundation Stage". Our teaching in PSHE and Citizenship matches the aim of developing a child's personal, emotional and social development as set out in the document. We also support Citizenship education when we teach 'how to develop a child's knowledge and understanding of the world'. See Appendix 4.

5. Teaching PSHE and Citizenship to children with Special Needs

5.1 We teach PSHE and Citizenship to all children, regardless of their abilities. Our teachers provide learning opportunities matched to the individual needs of children with learning difficulties. When teaching PSHE and Citizenship we take into account any targets that may be set for the children in their Individual Education Plans and offer access to a Learning Mentor as the need arises.

6. Inclusion

6.1 All children matter and are given every opportunity to achieve their best.

We achieve this by planning which will meet the needs of:

- boys and girls
- children with special educational needs
- children who are more able
- children with disabilities
- children from all social and cultural backgrounds

- different ethnic groups and diverse linguistic backgrounds.

6.2 We meet the needs of all children by:

- providing resources that reflect diversity and are free from discrimination and stereotyping
- using a range of teaching strategies that are based on their needs
- ensuring access to every activity where it is safe and reasonable to do so.

6.3 We have the following Intervention Groups in place at Prince of Wales:-

- Language and Social Skills Group (LASS – EYFS and KSI)
- Friendship Groups/Social Skills Group
- Circle Time
- Daily Supported/Guided Reading (DSR and DGR)
- Nurture Group – (Rainbow Class)
- Willows (KS2)
- Music Therapy
- Place to Talk
- Place to Be (P2B)

7. Assessment and Recording

7.1 Teachers assess the children's work in PSHE and Citizenship by making informal judgements as they observe them during lessons and other activities. We have clear expectations of what the pupils will know, understand and be able to do at the end of each Key Stage. Assessment should offer the children the opportunity to reflect on their own progress.

7.2 Teacher record weekly PSHE lessons in a class 'PSHE and Values Journal'. This includes photographic evidence and pupil voice.

7.3 Teachers record the achievements of pupils in PSHE and Citizenship. We report these achievements to parents each year.

7.4 We keep records of the contribution to the life of the school and community in photographic form in the weekly newsletter and on the website. Our Celebration Assemblies promote personal achievement and rewards thoughtful caring behaviour.

7.5 We encourage our pupils to keep records of their contribution to the life of the school and community by participating in the production of the school newsletter.

8. Resources

8.1 We keep resources for PSHE and Citizenship in a central store on the S Drive. A selection of PSHE books is stored in the staffroom. Christopher Winter Project books for Relationship Education are kept with the PSHE Coordinator. Teachers are encouraged to use a range of appropriate websites. We have additional resources in the school libraries.

9. Monitoring and review

9.1 The PSHE and Citizenship Co-ordinator together with the Head teacher is responsible for monitoring the standards of children's work and the quality of teaching of this subject. The Co-ordinator supports colleagues in the teaching of PSHE and Citizenship by providing them with information about current developments in this subject. The Co-ordinator also provides a strategic lead and direction for the school in PSHE and Citizenship, evaluating strengths and weaknesses and indicating areas for further improvement/development in this subject.

10. Attainment Targets

There are no attainment targets for PSHE education. Schools should continue to make use of the existing end of key stage statements to inform the assessment process. Opportunities for both Assessment for Learning and Assessment of learning are relevant and progress can be assessed. Assessment should encompass teacher, peer and self-assessment. Progress in PSHE education should be recorded and reported.

Note: This PSHE Policy should be read in conjunction with other school policies.

PSHE Policy Statement regarding the Curriculum for Relationships and Health Education (September 2020)

We want all children to grow up healthy, happy, safe, and able to manage the challenges and opportunities of modern Britain. That is why, from September 2020, all primary age children will be taught Relationships and Health Education. These subjects are designed to equip pupils with the knowledge to make informed decisions about their wellbeing, health and relationships as well as preparing them for a successful adult life.

The world for all young people looks very different from the way it did 20 years ago when this curriculum was last updated – these changes bring the content into the 21st century, so that it is relevant for all pupils.

Our school has flexibility to deliver the content in a way that is age and developmentally appropriate and sensitive to the needs, faiths and background of our pupils

Relationships Education

Relationships Education will put in place the building blocks needed for positive and safe relationships, including with family, friends and online.

- ❖ Pupils will be taught what a relationship is, what friendship is, what family means and who can support them. In an age-appropriate way they will cover how to treat each other with kindness, consideration and respect.

By the end of primary school, pupils will have been taught content on:

- families and people who care for them
- caring friendships
- respectful relationships
- online relationships

- being safe

Health Education

Health Education aims to give pupils the information they need to make good decisions about their own health and wellbeing, to recognise issues in themselves and others, and to seek support as early as possible when issues arise.

By the end of primary school, pupils will have been taught content on:

- mental wellbeing
- internet safety and harms
- physical health and fitness
- healthy eating
- facts and risks associated with drugs, alcohol and tobacco
- health and prevention
- basic first aid
- changing adolescent body

The important lessons parents/carers teach their child about healthy relationships, looking after themselves and staying safe, are respected and valued under this new curriculum. Teaching at school will complement and reinforce the lessons taught at home, as children grow up.

Our school has systems in place to support parenting e.g. PSA, parent groups and parent classes.

Parent/Carer Survey and regular Parent Forums:

The school will engage with parents/carers when developing and renewing their policies on Relationship and Health Education. These policies will be published online and be available to anybody free of charge. Parents/Carers can express their opinion, and this will help the school to decide how and when to cover the content of the statutory guidance. Schools are required to ensure their teaching reflects the age and faith background of their pupils.

Right to withdraw children:

- ❖ Parents/Carers cannot withdraw their child from Relationships Education because it is important that all children receive this content, covering topics such as friendships and how to stay safe.
- ❖ Primary schools can choose to teach Sex Education - See Prince of Wales Sex Education Policy.
- ❖ If Parents/Carers do not want their child to take part in some or all of the lessons on Sex Education, they can ask that they are withdrawn. The head teacher must grant this request.
- ❖ The science curriculum in all maintained schools also includes content on human development, including reproduction, from which there is no right to withdraw.
