And on the subject of sports, Ahmed in 1K joined Race for Life over the weekend running 5K in 40 minutes, making his mother and father very proud. It was thought that he would jog or walk, but Ahmed ran straight and he feels so proud of himself and what he has accomplished.

What next for Ahmed? Like all our pupils with talents, skills and abilities, we want to nurture these. May we one day see him in the Olympics? It is good to have these ambitions when young. Hear for example inspirational athlete Ade Adepitan talk about his motivation to become an athlete when he was a child.

Book stimulus: The colour of home by Mary Hoffman

On Thursday 16th June, a P4C café was held for parents. The aim was to introduce a live session with eight year 5 children taking part in a typical P4C lesson. The reasons why we teach P4C at Prince of Wales was explained to parents including the importance of having starter games

Both parents and children were invited to take part in a starter game: 'Good because...bad because', questions which they all thoroughly

The story 'The colour of home' was read and children and adults gave their thoughts about the story. Everyone was then invited to think of a deep philosophical question based on the story. A 'mushroom' vote was conducted and the most popular question voted on culminated in a lively thought-provoking discussion/debate. A big 'thank you' to Mrs Gopaul

Mrs Gilfillian (P4C Lead) and Mrs Gopaul

Here are some of the parent comments:

"This session was very interesting."

"I believe it will help children think more deeply."

"It was very informative and fun."

"Everything was really very good. Thank you."

INTERGENERATIONAL PROJECT — Mrs J Gilfillian

On Wednesday 25th May, eight year 4 children visited the Albany Day Care home, in Enfield, accompanied by the Chickenshed Theatre company staff.

The children were selected by their class teacher Miss Gilani, to take part in a performance workshop the week before. This included creating shadows on the wall and learning new movement to music.

We made shadows on the wall.

When we went to Albany Day Care home, we performed dances and made a rainbow out of cloth! This really cheered them up. In the end, we tied bunting squares together to celebrate the Queen's jubilee. It was really fun and I hope that we can go again. Keziah 4G

It was nice to have the Chickenshed people with us and when we got there we saw lots of the residents. Harley 4G

When we got there, we said 'hello' and shook hands! It was nice to have the Chickenshed crew help us with all our moves and everything. It was really lots of fun! Lily 4G

1981 THE ROYAL WEDDING THRONE by 3H

The wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer took place on Wednesday, 29 July 1981, at St Paul's Cathedral in London. This royal wedding is said to be the most viewed wedding in royal history, with over 750 million people tuning in around the world. Lady Dianna will forever be celebrated and remembered for her kind, caring and loving nature. She was and is an inspiration to us all.

The glass carriage:

The coach that was used to transport Prince Charles and Lady Diana.

The dress

Diana's dress was designed by the Emanuel's. The dress was covered in 10,000 pearls, and a long 459ft veil.

The children made pearls using clay and painted them with white acrylic paint. These were then polished using a sheer silver paint.

1985 LIVE AID THRONE by 3F

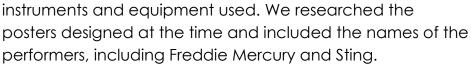

We created a throne to represent the Live Aid concert, which took place on Saturday 13th July 1985. This was a charity concert to help the victims of famine in Ethiopia. It was organised by Bob Geldof and Midge Ure and held at Wembley Stadium. On the same day, a concert was held in Philadelphia, USA. There were also other concerts held to support Ethiopia. 72 000 people attended the Wembley concert.

Firstly, we pretended to be the crowd at Wembley and created photographs of ourselves as if we were in the audience. We included stage curtains made from material and photographs of performers at the time. We made models of the

We enjoyed listening to music from Live Aid and singing along to the song," Do they know it's Christmas?", which was the inspiration for the concert.

1980s TOYs THRONE by 3W

Our throne represented the toys of the 1980s, which we studied in history. They were such fun!

We played Packman – one of the first computer games – and compared its functions to the functions of computer games today. Next we took a close look at Care Bears, which are multicoloured bears boasting wonderfully varied belly badges. We all knew the Rubik's Cube, which was invented in 1974 but reached huge popularity in the 1980s – lots of us had one at home. Finally, we researched cabbage patch dolls, which were cloth dolls with plastic heads and very distinctive hair, often made of plaited yarn.

We wanted to include all of the toys we had studied on our throne. First of all, we painted it black with acrylic paint, so that it would make a good base for showing off our decorations.

Next, we painted paper in the shades of the Rubik's cube, cut the paper into strips and make cube shapes to cover the legs. Care Bear fans set about drawing images of their favourites in pencil, to cover the seat, and then added Care Bear badges to adorn the seat edges. Packman fans cut out a yellow felt Packman and drew the game on the throne back rest, using oil pastels. We love our Cabbage Patch hair, which adds softness and, we think, a regal air!

We added a base and sides in the colours of the Rubik's cube to make our throne grander.

YEAR 6

The Year 6 Children that remained at school during the Butlins trip had a fun filled three days. On the Monday, the children were very curious about their first activity, Tie Dye t-shirts. After a short video and then a demonstration of how to arrange the t-shirt the children began to make their own creations. They folded, scrunched and spiraled their tops and held them together with elastic bands. Then, after putting on gloves to keep hands clean they began to apply the dye. Twenty-four hours later it was rinse and reveal time, they were very impressed with their creations and are all looking forward to wearing them over the summer.

Tuesday 7th June, the children cooked pancakes although it did not go as planned and some of the pancakes were not very edible, although they did have the traditional topping of lemon and sugar. They then got to choose between making a small decorative cushion or playing games.

Wednesday, was the day trip to London to see the sights.

The children travelled to Westminster station and were excited to see Big Ben, Houses of Parliament and the many statues in Parliament Square.

From here, they walked down Whitehall and looked at the Cenotaph and the poppy wreaths that had been laid there in respect and remembrance. The adventure continued and they stopped for few moments at Downing Street to see if they could spot the Prime Minister in residence. Further along Whitehall, they saw the Horse Guards and were lucky to see a change of the guard. The magnificent horses were a sight to behold.

After lunch in a park at The Mall it was onto Buckingham Palace the flags were still there from the jubilee. Children then made their way back towards Westminster where they saw the final view of the day: The London Eye from Westminster Bridge The children thoroughly enjoyed the day and returned home exhausted from all the walking.

Victoria Sponge recipe

Ingredients

4 free-range eggs

225g/8oz caster sugar, plus a little extra for dusting the finished cake

225g/8oz self-raising flour

2 tsp baking powder

225g/8oz butter at room temperature, plus a little extra to grease the tins

Fo The filling

100g butter, softened

140g icing sugar, sifted drop vanilla extract (optional)

half a 340g jar good-quality strawberry jam

icing sugar, to decorate

Ready rolled icing for cake decorating, (optional)

Cake decorations, ready moulded from all good supermarkets.

Method

Preheat the oven to 180C/160C Fan/Gas 4. Grease and line two 20cm/8in sandwich tins. Use a piece of baking paper to rub a little butter around the inside of the tins until the sides and base are lightly coated, then line the bottom with a circle of baking paper.

Break the eggs into a large mixing bowl, then add the sugar, flour, baking powder and butter. Mix together until well combined with an electric hand mixer (you can also use a wooden spoon), but be careful not to over mix. Put a damp cloth under your bowl when you're mixing to stop it moving around. The finished mixture should fall off a spoon easily. Divide the mixture evenly between the tins: this doesn't need to be exact, but you can weigh the filled tins if you want to check. Use a spatula to remove all of the mixture from the bowl and gently smooth the surface of the cakes.

Bake the cakes on the middle shelf of the oven for 25 minutes. Check them after 20 minutes. The cakes are done when they're golden-brown and coming away from the edge of the tins. Press them gently to check — they should be springy to the touch. Set aside to cool in their tins for 5 minutes. Run a palette or rounded butter knife around the inside edge of the tins and carefully turn the cakes out onto a cooling rack.

To assemble the cake, place one cake upside down onto a plate and spread it with plenty of jam. If you want to, you can spread over whipped cream too. Top with the second cake, top-side up. Sprinkle over the caster sugar.

Recipe Tips

To freeze the cakes: Allow the cakes to cool completely, then wrap each cake well in cling film or freezer bags. Freeze for up to 6 months. Allow to defrost thoroughly before filling.

To take your cakes out of the tins without leaving a wire rack mark on the top, put the clean tea towel over the tin, put your hand onto the tea towel and turn the tin upside-down. The cakes should come out onto your hand and the tea towel – then you can turn them from your hand onto the wire rack. Set aside to cool completely.
