

PRINCE OF WALES PRIMARY SCHOOL

Newsletter
17th March 2023

Dear Parents/Carers, Governors and Friends,

We appreciate that two strike days this week will not have been easy for many families and children. We are encouraged with the latest news that teacher strikes will be paused for two weeks while education unions and the government hold "intensive" talks over pay, workload and conditions.

Double Whammy Friday

Today, children supported Red Nose Day by wearing red and making a donation to Comic Relief. Every year group also participated in a Science Day by organising three different science experiments for their classes. This was a tremendous success – ask your child about it. Ahead of a full report next week, here is little flavour:
