Dear Parents/Carers, Governors and Friends,

Alice in Wonderland by M&M Theatre Production

Our children were treated to another great performance of this well-known classic. All the main protagonists were there including the White Rabbit, The Tweedle Twins, The Mad Hatter and the quickly offended Queen of Hearts. The main star, Alice, danced with gusto and thanks to some special effects we saw her fall down the rabbit hole, grow to enormous size and retrieve a key from behind a pupil's ear.

Next January, we look forward to the pantomime Jack and the Beanstalk and M&M also returns in June 2024 with The Railway Children.

Fabulous King's Coronation Afternoon Tea Party

This year's street party was at least as good as the previous one; children and staff had a great time. Everyone mucked in to plan, organise, set up and tidy afterwards with lovely food and great entertainment. The weather was perfect so a good call to change the date. There is of course a full page of photos that captures the event. We are already planning our next one.

Lunch menu from Monday 10th July

The lunch menu will be limited to cold food only as a result of building works in the kitchen that will last throughout the summer. The kitchen should be fully operational again from the start of September. The temporary menu is available on Parent Pay and also page 10.

Enfield Music Service

The deadline for booking Autumn term music lessons and instrument hire is this Sunday 9th July 2023 and we are not able to take bookings after this date. To book parents can visit <https://traded.enfield.gov.uk/musicstore>

If anyone is having trouble booking we are here to help; please contact us before 12pm on Friday 7th July on 020 8807 8881 or email Enfieldmusicservice@enfield.gov.uk.

Bookings for ensemble membership will remain open throughout the holidays into September.

For further information and guidance please read our FAQs: <https://traded.enfield.gov.uk/musicservice/faqs>

Prince of Wales Cultural Day June 2023

It was wonderful to be invited back to Prince of Wales Primary School.

We enjoyed sharing your cultural day and catching up with children and staff.

We hope you will all continue to be curious about your world both local and further afield.

Remember the words from the Aladdin Song "A Whole New World."

- The world is a wondrous place
- There are hundreds and thousands of things to see
- Open your eyes, pursue new horizons
- Look for unbelievable sights and indescribable feelings in every turn

What countries do you already have connections with? Which ones would you like to make connections with?

Wishing you all a good summer holiday,

Mrs Redmore and Ms Clarke
