Martin Luther King Jr. was a Baptist minister and the leader of the Black civil rights movement. He spoke out against segregation laws which kept Black people and White people separate and led marches demanding fair laws for all people, no matter what their race. Martin Luther King Jr. was determined to ensure that all Americans had the same rights, regardless of their race.

Childhood

He was born on 15th January 1929 in Atlanta, Georgia, USA. His father was a pastor and his mother had been a teacher. Martin Luther King Jr. loved to play with his friends but, as his friends got older, two of them stopped playing with him. The father of one of the boys didn't like his son playing with him because he was Black. Martin Luther King Jr. was deeply upset and couldn't understand why the colour of his skin would make any difference.
